Changeover to IFRS

The consolidated results for 2004 are published for the first time for a full financial year in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

To create a comparable basis, the results for 2003 have been restated according to the same accounting standards.

The application of the new accounting standards has consequences mainly for the valuation of intangible and tangible fixed assets, provisions for pensions and deferred tax assets and liabilities. More details on the impact of the new accounting standards on the results and the balance sheet are available on <http://www.recticel.com>.

Review of sales and results

For the first six months, Recticel announced a considerable improvement in its profitability. During the second half of the year, however, the Group had to contend with rising raw materials prices and the negative effects of a delay in certain contracts by American car manufacturers. Both factors had a negative impact on the results.

Nevertheless, after the difficult year 2003, 2004 was again profitable and sales and results grew.

The net sales of the Group rose in 2004 by 8.1% to EUR 1,276.3 million.

On a comparable basis, sales would have risen by 6.0%. The main change in the scope of consolidation is the expansion of the Proseat joint venture (seat cushion activities in the automotive sector) in Continental Europe.

| TOTAL   | 82.4 | 67.7   | 21.8% |

The operating result rose from EUR 13.3 million to EUR 31.9 million.

The financial costs rose from EUR 18.0 million to EUR 21.5 million. Net interest expenses came to EUR 19.3 million (EUR 14.0 million in 2003) and were subject to the negative impact of the interest margins charged and the higher average debt. The other financial expenses amounted to EUR 2.2 million.

The heading income taxes and deferred taxes came to EUR 0.2 million (- EUR 3.6 million in 2003), which is explained by:

- the taxes on the result (- EUR 4.7 million), especially on subsidiaries in the Czech Republic and of Eurofoam in Central Europe;
- the deferred taxes (EUR 4.9 million), through the recognition of additional deferred taxes as a result of changes in the tax legislation in France and the higher profit forecast of Eurofoam Germany.

The minority interests rose to EUR 5.9 million and are attributable to the joint ventures Copirel (bedding), JR Interiors (automotive) and Proseat (automotive).

Under the impact of all these factors, the Group recorded a net profit (Group share) of EUR 5.4 million, compared to a loss of EUR 10.1 million in 2003.

Market sectors

Flexible foams

The performance of the European market for flexible foams attained a healthy growth in volumes, but was disrupted by a continuing rise in raw materials prices since May 2004. Due to the progressive character of these increases, the adjustment of our own selling prices was delayed. The non-European activities performed strongly, both in terms of sales and profitability.

Sales rose by 2.5% to EUR 470.4 million. All sectors progressed, although often following a different trend in the various countries.

EBITDA declined by 6.8% to EUR 33.0 million.

The main factors are the above mentioned rise in raw materials prices and disappointing trim foam prices. The latter tendency has already been under way for some time and has prompted Recticel to go in search of new applications in 'Composite Foams'. The Group confirms that this activity is showing healthy growth and expanding increasingly.

Bedding

Sales rose in the bedding sector by 1.4% to EUR 368.3 million. The rise occurred mainly during the second half of the year and occurred in nearly all countries.

After a number of difficult years, EBITDA rose by 23.5% to EUR 20.8 million. The increase is mainly attributable to the restructuring carried out in the Netherlands and Germany and to a tentative economic upturn in Western Europe.

Insulation

Sales of the insulation sector remained stable at EUR 95.7 million.

Industrial insulation (EUR 21.6 million in sales) showed a slight decrease due to lower export activities, whilst insulation for the construction industry (EUR 71.9 million in sales) forged ahead, especially through the growth of the UK market.

EBITDA, at EUR 11.6 million, remained at the same level as the previous year in spite of the higher raw materials prices.

Automotive

Sales of the automotive sector rose by 26.0% to EUR 400.0 million.

EBITDA rose by 50.4% to EUR 27.1 million.

The 'seating cushions' department put up a strong performance, in terms of both sales (EUR 152.8 million) and profit, which is the consequence of the extension of the Proseat joint venture, among other factors.

The 'interior trim' department (EUR 153.4 million in sales) experienced a positive trend in the European plants, where, once the start-up phase is over, profitability reaches an acceptable level. In the American plants, the delay in the launch of a number of models generated extra costs which are slowing down the overall profitability of this activity.

Prospects

A further increase of the high level prices of the raw materials will affect the results of the company. Taking this into account, no forecast will be made at this moment, but be made possible at the Annual General Meeting dated 17 May 2005.

Dividend

After examining the results, the Board of Directors will propose to the Annual General Meeting of 17 May, the payment of a gross dividend of EUR 0.17 per share (EUR 0.1275 net).
