REPLAST 2013: Driving Manufacturing Using Recycled Plastics

A BPF Conference

How can we increase the production of recycled plastics in the UK? REPLAST 2013, the 6th Annual BPF Recycling Conference will answer this question and more as well as giving you the opportunity to network with your peers in this prestigious plastics recycling event. Our knowledgeable speakers from companies including John Lewis, Axion Recycling and Chase Plastics will provide expert insight on topics including a view from the coalface, a retailers view on plastics recycling and how to increase use of recycled plastics in products.

Featuring panel debates, survey results and a keynote address on the coalition government's position on plastics recycling, this is your chance to learn about the latest ideas and developments that will affect the recycling industry.

Speakers Biographies

Roger Baynham, BPF Recycling Group Chairman

Roger has 25 years experience in the industry, originally with Philip Tyler Ltd and since 1994 as Managing Director of Philip Tyler Polymers Ltd. Additionally he was appointed as a non – executive Director of Environmental Recycling Technologies PLC in 2006 and has more recently taken up an executive position as Managing Director. Roger is also a chairman of the WRAP Plastic Forum.

Bernard Chase, Regain Polymers

Bernard's recycling roots can be traced back uninterrupted through 3 generations to his grandfather's scrap rubber business founded in the 1920s. A graduate of Warwick University with a degree in Philosophy & Politics, Bernard's career in plastics recycling has spanned nearly 40 years from Directorship of Chase Plastics Ltd, the family business specialising in Polythene film recycling, to his current role as Purchasing Director for Regain Polymers Limited (formerly Linpac Plastics Recycling) one of the largest UK specialists in rigid plastics recycling.

Peter Davis, British Plastics Federation

Peter Davis has been the Director General of the British Plastics Federation from 1st October 1997. Before that he was the Chief Executive of Incpen (The Industry Council for Packaging and the Environment) from October 1993 - September 1997. He has previously held the following positions: Director of Marketing; Membership and International Affairs at the Royal Institute of British Architects; Head of Home Affairs in the Conservative Research Department; Special Adviser to Environment Secretary Kenneth Baker MP.

Matthew Farrow, Environmental Service Association

Matthew joined the ESA as Director of Policy in January 2011. He is responsible for leading all ESA's policy work on behalf of its members. Prior to joining ESA, Matthew worked at CBI, where he held a number of management positions in the CBI's Policy Directorates, most recently as Head of the CBI's Energy, Transport & Planning policy team.

Keith Freegard, Axion Recycling

Keith is a Director of Axion Recycling Ltd, with over 25 years of operational management experience in a wide range of production environments. As a Chartered Chemical Engineer, Keith believes in applying the best processing technology to extract maximum yield and value from plastic waste streams. In recent years he has been developing Axion's unique plastics recycling business in Manchester with a focus on sales and marketing of high-quality polymers made from recovered WEEE plastic waste.

Bruce Margetts, RPC Container

Bruce has been involved in manufacturing plastics packaging for 25 years, encompassing all the key conversion technologies. Bruce has spent the last 14 years at RPC Containers. He was initially responsible for an extrusion and thermoforming factory and is currently responsible for the RPC UK injection moulding businesses at five sites across the UK.
