KI Group – Polymer Summit K 2016

Dear Sir or Madam,

K 2016 is the showcase of the world's plastics industry, where global suppliers will converge to address the needs of tomorrow's markets.

How these markets will develop is the theme of the exclusive "KI Group Polymer Summit K 2016", held on the fair's second day, and which brings together presentations by leading industry experts under the topic "Plastics markets in a changing world".

KI Group invites all our partners and customers to the walk-in event. Participation is free of charge. Sign up now to save yourself one of the limited number of available seats.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Andreas Hertsch, Managing Director KI Group
